The Corner at Fort Ben Announces Its First Three Locally Owned Businesses Coming to Lawrence

The Corner at Fort Ben is excited to announce the first businesses that will call Lawrence's newest neighborhood destination home. Located in the heart of Fort Benjamin Harrison, The Corner is proud to welcome three locally owned Indiana companies that reflect the community's entrepreneurial spirit while creating a destination for residents and visitors alike. From morning coffee to fine dining to better sleep and wellness, these businesses represent the beginning of a vibrant gathering place designed to serve Lawrence and the surrounding communities.

The first announced tenant is Post 23, an upscale Italian-American restaurant from respected local restaurateur Gino Pizzi. Inspired by the history and character of Fort Benjamin Harrison, Post 23 will bring an elevated dining experience to Lawrence while honoring the community's military roots through its atmosphere, hospitality, and timeless cuisine.

Joining Post 23 is Tailwind Cafe, an aviation-inspired coffee and ice cream shop owned by a Lawrence North graduate with deep ties to the community. Tailwind Cafe will offer a welcoming atmosphere where families, students, professionals, and visitors can enjoy handcrafted coffee, breakfast and lunch food options, premium ice cream, and a uniquely local experience from morning through evening.

Also opening at The Corner at Fort Ben is Comfort Option, an Indiana-based company redefining home comfort through personalized sleep, recovery, and solutions for rest at home. Their mission is to "help people love being home" through thoughtfully customized comfort experiences.

These first announcements mark an exciting milestone for The Corner at Fort Ben and represent the beginning of a destination built by Hoosiers, for Hoosiers. This is just the beginning. Follow The Corner at Fort Ben online and on social media as the vision continue to come to life.
